We Live in Nature

The mud becoming new shapes as the days and weeks go by,
Leaves falling down at the calling of Autumn.
The tree trunks growing like the grandparents of nature,
And the soil acting as the base of the world.

Megan Rowlands

A Week in Staffordshire

Monday gave me time to dwell,
Tuesday was like a rollercoaster,
Wednesday went awfully well,
Thursday was as hot as a toaster.
Friday, I cooked a famous dish,
Saturday went by like a flick,
Sunday I caught a large fish.
The week flew by awfully quick.

Niamh Roberts

My Favourite Thing

My favourite thing is playing rugby, because I can take out all my bad thoughts and anger while I play.

Whitney Payne

My Street

My street looks really empty because people rarely come down the road. I live on Lambert Road, where there's a big stump of a tree that was cut down because it was leaning on a bush.

When it's sunny, it's really beautiful because you can see the sunset.

Alicia Shaw

I Want to Be Remembered For

Learning to speak a different language. Having holidays in different countries. Giving Money to poor.

I want to be remembered for being successful.

Scarlett Mongey

The Library

It has my favourite books,
And some weird nooks.
Cozy and Comfy,
But the beanbags are all lumpy.

A Recipe for Staffordshire

Get a big bowl.

First, mix in 500g of happiness and add all of Alton Towers rides.

Sprinkle with a pinch of adrenalin.

Add a pinch of sunshine and 300ml of rain.

Stir in 400g of history.

Whisk in 400g of stunning countryside.

Knead together with love.

Add in 500g of happiness chips.

Knead again with love.

Bake in the oven with kindness and enjoy!

A Home in Colour

The reds of the bricks,
The blue of the tiles,
The white of the doors and windows,
It obviously took a while,
To build my lovely home,
But at least it's easy to remember where to go.

Lexi Renkin

A House or a Home

A house is just a building and a home is where I live.
I live in Uttoxeter, and my home is here.

Maria Tkachenko

Our Town is Beautiful Because

The morning sunrise and the superb sunset.
The elegant spire of the church that watches over us.

Millie Brown

STAFFORDSHIRE

Staffordshire is a home to many.
There's always something going on.
Alton Towers is the place to go.
Fields of flowers.
Farmers working every second,
Over all the fields.
Range Rovers to get through rocky tracks.
Deer in the forests.
Staffordshire is our home.
Hills that raise up high,
In small towns.
Raining too often.
Everyone loves Greggs.

A Message To My Older Self

Hello me,
How's it going? Who are my friends/who is my best friend? How is school and did I do well in my SATS? Are my friends still my friends? Do I have a boyfriend? Am I doing good?

Beth Nicholls

I Love My Home

I love my home because I have lived there for almost my whole life and each year it keeps on getting better. It is such a cozy, warm, nice place to be. I have everything I want there and everything I need there.

Joe Newman

Cinebowl

In the Cinebowl, it's an amazing place,
It's a sick beat with a double base.
An exciting place with solid walls,
And posters going down the halls.

Windsor Park

The Flowers

My favourite thing is going places with lots of flowers because I just love them and how they smell and look.

Daisy Carter

Colourful County

The lovely sunset
Rises over the grey skyline,
Winds going stronger,
The green grass gets longer.
My cheeks are rosy red,
Due to the heat in my bed.
The leaves are turning brown,
as the old ones blow to town.

Only a Metaphor Could Describe You

My home is a museum filled with memories.

Staffordshire is a warm bed- I never want to leave it.

Staffordshire is a bag of pick n mix, some are fruity, some are sour and some are sweet, but they are all perfect the way they are.

My home is a blanket, it is comfy and warm.

My house is a zoo, because my sister lives there.

Staffordshire is a McDonalds burger, because 'I'm lovin' it!'.

Staffordshire is a bag of Doritos, so many flavours.

Staffordshire is like a tree- with one root we fall, but together we stand.

Staffordshire is a time capsule filled with history.

Windsor Park

My Home

I love my home because I have a dog who is a labrador, 2 guinea pigs, who are cute, and a swing set and trampoline. My home is like a blanket, cozy safe and warm.

Nancy Warrilow

Only Some of These Are True

Did you know,
Burton is in Staffordshire.
Ariana Grande lives in the freezer aisle in Tesco.
The symbol of Staffordshire is a knot.
King Charles buys his pencil cases from Smiggle.
Staffordshire has lots of Tescos and Morrisons.
Ed Sheeran is an English teacher at Windsor Park
Middle School.

Jack Turner

Painting Staffordshire

My house would be painted with big brush stokes and orangey, red paint. It needs a light greyish green for the door.

There will need to be lots of dark grey for the clouds in the sky and it needs a bushy brush.

Rosie Macpherson

What Do You Do at Home?

We get home and I get a snack, do any jobs that need to be done. If not, I chill and watch TV. Then I help out with tea and read and watch TV in bed. We go outside and play on our bikes

Fletcher Amos

My House

My home is normally happy,
Even though it sometimes stinks of a nappy.
My house is humongous,
My brother normally asks me to play 'Among Us'.
My mum owns a nursery, which is huge.
There is even a carpet, which is rouge.
My house is healthy,
And we are lucky to be wealthy.

Harvey Claren

The Soundtrack to Staffordshire

- Bang Bang into the room (because its crowded)
- Money Money (lots of places to go shopping)
- Wrecking Ball (lots of building work)
- Happy (because we are)

Kaitlyn Whitehead

Where I am Happy

Friends are always happy for you,
Family are always there for you.
The Park is a fun place to be,
My house is where I am happy.
My room is a place for only me,
McDonalds is really tasty.

Betsy Bagley

Free

The sun glistens on the window and the trees sway in the wind. The birds sing in the treetops and people play in the garden. When you step out the door, you feel free as a horse galloping in a meadow.

Where I Live

Hollington is where I live.
Inside the house is family and friends,
A bond which never ends.
There are red barns and farms flourish.
For a picnic, it must be sunny,
So me and my friends can be funny.
Down the road, around the corner,
There lives a friendly farmer,
Who's wife is a lovely lady.
She makes the town a funny place,
And so it is always sunny.
This is my town,
And I love it.

Joshua Beverley

If...

If Staffordshire was a moment in history, it would be Word War 2, because we are proud that the inventor of the Spitfire called it home.

If Staffordshire was a food it would be oatcakes because they are iconic to us.

If Staffordshire was a colour it would be green because of its beautiful countryside.

If Staffordshire was a film, it would be Top Gun, because it is full of action!

If Staffordshire was a song, it would be Mamma Mia, because how can we resist it?

Windsor Park

My Favourite Memory

My amazing nephew was born. He brought joy to my life in many great seconds. I was the happiest person in the world and I couldn't believe what had just happened.

Jessica Mathiya Logan

The Best Things About Staffordshire

1. Going to the humongous park
2. Getting lots of chocolate at the Post Office
3. Having a Roast Dinner at the pub
4. Doing Cubs fundraisers
5. Taking part in the Halloween trail
6. Taking part in the Christmas trail
7. Going to Sudbury Hall
8. Going to Alton Towers
9. Watching Stoke play
10. Eating all the fast food

I Like

Seeing my friends in the week.

Walks in the countryside with my friends.

Going to Different Places.

My house.

Where I live in Doveridge.

The street I live on.

My teachers at school.

Phoebe Foster

Our School

School is a great place,
I wonder round like I'm in space.
I like seeing my friends,
Maths lessons feel like they never end.
I like seeing my teacher in class,
My music teacher teaches me bass.

Windsor Park

Stafford

Stafford is cool.

To be here is fun.

At Stafford you can do a lot.

Fun people all around.

Following everyone into town.

Overall my favourite place is McDonalds.

Resting in my bed is so fun.

Don't really want to go to school.

Emilie Kytomaki

Where to Explore

The town is beautiful, there's so much to see.
From the racing course to a calm reservoir.
Every part is beautiful.
Even the rainy days, where the sky isn't bright,
Or there are thunderstorms.
The church is where most of us pray,
Forests and wetlands, lakes and rivers.
Lots of places to explore.

Anna

We Wish it Was True!

A real pig was made out of pink paint.
The Mona Lisa was painted in Uttoxeter.
Creme eggs are made out of real gold.
The houses are made out of chocolate.
The Staffordshire knot is really a pretzel.
Sharpies can be used as drills.
Cotton is made out of crystals.
Cows were splatted with permanent ink.

Holly Ede & Isabelle Walton

If The Three Little Pigs Lived in Uttoxeter

Once upon a time, there were 3 little gangsters and a big bad tax man, who was chasing them. One made a house to hide in out of Prime But the tax man kicked it down because Prime bottles are not good building resources. The second gangster made a house out of fish and chips, but the tax man got a hose and made the chips soggy. The third gangster built a place called Wakey Wines and the tax man could not arrest them!

The End.

Alfie Pearce

A Sense of Staffordshire

I can hear the buzzing of car engines.

I can smell biscuits from the factory across the road.

I can feel the concrete beneath my feet.

I can taste fish and chips on a Friday.

I can see my home.
